

Dear Sirs:

I am writing you as a private citizen who is concerned over the consideration of the FCC to give LPFM priority over FM translator stations. I feel this is a mistake. National and regional radio networks, which rely on translator technology, bring a unity to our nation which is needed in such perilous times. In my opinion, LPFM stations cater to private interests and do not promote community values.

Sincerely,

Norman P. Lober, Jr. & Family